A Trial of 50 Years.

The New York Observer has passed thro go the or leal, and sa-ts out anew on the second fifty years with a larger list of readers and more numerous friends than ever. Such a steady course of prosperity is unexampled, and inspires confidence. We heartily rejoice in the great success of a paper which has always advocated those sound principles that underlie the foundations of society and good government. Othodox in the truest sense, both in Church and State, its influence is always good. We see its publishers propose to give to every subscriber for 1873 an appropriately embeilished Jubilee Year Book. Those who subscribe will have no cause to regret the step. $3 a year. Sidney E. Morse & Co., 37 Park Row, New York.
